EXPERIENCE THE WHOLE VALLEY!

One card – all the highlights!

The Stubai Super Card is your admission ticket to an amazing summer holiday in the Stubai Valley. Whether you are passionate hiker, climber or gourmet – there is something for everyone! From May 16 to November 2, 2025 the Stubai Super Card will make your experience of the whole valley and breath-taking mountainscape even more intense. You receive the Stubai Super Card when staying with one of the participating accommodation partners. It is valid throughout your entire vacation – starting from day one.

GOOD TO KNOW

Cable cars: The Stubai Super Card grants you direct access to the cable cars via the turnstile. You do not need to queue up at the counter. Please note that each cable car may only be used once per day (one ride up, one ride down). All cable car schedules are subject to change. These services are only available during the standard opening hours of the service providers.

Public transport: You have unlimited access to public transport on the 590 and 595 lines (Stubaitalbus) between Mutterberg and Innsbruck during standard operating hours. You also benefit from unlimited access to the STB line (Stubaitalbahn) between Fulpmes and Innsbruck during standard operating hours. If you arrive by train, public transport access is already included. Please download your travel voucher free of charge from stubai.at.

Experience the breath-taking Stubai mountainscape up close.

STUBAI CABLE CARS

Easy way to the peak

The Stubai cable cars will take you to many starting points for hiking and mountain tours – all in the height of comfort. The cosy huts & lodges and idyllic alpine meadows of the Stubai Valley invite you to relax in the beautiful mountain area.

A detailed overview of the range of hiking trips and tours on offer can be found in the Stubai “Hut Guide” (Hüttenführer-Folder) which is available at the Stubai Tyrol Tourist Information. Treat yourself to the culinary delights available on the idyllic alpine meadows and huts & lodges – even when the sun is not out, a cable car-ride will always be worth your while.

Countless huts and high alpine meadows invite hikers to linger and relax. Above the clouds: View from the summit station of the Serlesbahnen.

THE STUBAI GLACIER

Simply high

The impressive panorama of the world of the Stubai Glacier opens up as soon as you ride the spacious 3S Eisgratbahn. At almost 3,000 metres, there is also plenty to experience in the summer months. Impressively embedded in the panorama of the Stubai Glacier, the TOP OF TYROL summit platform offers a unique 360-degree view of over 109 three-thousand metre peaks. The Schaufeljoch chapel, just a few minutes' walk from the mountain station, is a wonderful place to pause.

The Eisgrat restaurant with its sun terrace provides enjoyable moments, with a wide range of dishes from BBQs and hut classics to small snacks, with particular emphasis on the use of regional products.

Watch out families! The Mammoth high-altitude playground with trunk slide invites all young visitors to play and romp around. In July and August, you can find out all about the Stubai Glacier World during the daily information session at 12:00 noon.

SCHLICK 2000

Fantastic mountain activities for the entire family

The Schlick 2000 family hiking centre awaits you with a total of 65 km of hiking trails and a variety of mountain activities. The cable cars take you up to 2,136 m – from there the panorama trail leads you to the “StubaiBlick” viewing platform, which offers a breath-taking view of the surrounding mountains and the fascinating Kalkkögel formation. Continue along the nature trail to the Schlickeralm, from where the path leads you through the “Abendweide” area to the idyllic Lake Panoramasee, which invites you to relax and take in the natural beauty with all your senses. A rolling wooden disc on the adjoining Scheibenweg trail ensures a fun-filled descent to the Intermediate Station, from where the Stubai Baumhausweg trail, with its extraordinarily designed tree houses and numerous highlights, provides enjoyment for kids and parents alike.

The informative nature trail starts at the top station Kreuzjochbahn

The StubaiBlick viewing platform at sunrise

The new lake trail starts at the Galtbergbahn mountain station and runs idyllically downhill past the Galtalmsee lake to the panoramic lake, offering the opportunity to refresh your feet in the cool water.

New from summer 2025: The Rutschenweg trail starts right next to the Galtberg cable car station, where several slides provide an action-packed experience in the middle of the mountain landscape.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Mobility in the whole valley – and all the way to Innsbruck

The Stubai Super Card also includes the use of public transport. I.e., you can reach all important starting points in the valley comfortably, such as the breath-taking WildeWasserWeg, and you can leave your own car parked at your accommodation.

Please check the bus timetables at the bus stops. The Stubai Super Card is valid on the lines 590, 595 (bus) and STB (Stubai Valley Tram).

Please note that the Stubai Super Card is NOT valid on the 590N (Nightliner)! In order to avoid overcrowded buses, we would also ask you to take the Stubai Valley Railway (line STB) rather than the bus (line ST) at peak hours between 4:00 pm and 6:00 pm.

Bus line 590

Sightseeing in front of the “Goldenes Dachl”; you can take the bus or the train to Innsbruck and back to the Stubai Valley.

BONUS PARTNERS

Experience even more in the Stubai

In addition to the many included offers, the Stubai Super Card also offers a series of attractive bonus offers. Just show your card to the many participating partners and you will save up to 30% on the regular admission.

(The actual admission for the Stubai Super Card holders results from the partners' regular admission minus 30%. This price will be rounded to the next higher 50-cent amount. Example: the regular admission minus 30% equals € 3.43, i.e. the actual reduced admission is € 3.50)
